Policy Acknowledgement:

Due to current health and safety concerns, the following policies will be in place for the health and safety of everyone:

- Health and Safety Guidelines for the events are subject to current trends, such as masking. We will observe current recommendations from the CDC. Actors may make their own choices for maintaining personal space.
- By purchasing your ticket and attending the GH Weekend, you recognize that disease and illness, including, but not limited to, the coronavirus (COVID-19) and the common cold, may be spread through interaction with other people.
- You further agree that, by attending GH Weekend events, you waive any claim of liability you might make against General Hospital Fan Club Weekend or its volunteers because of your contracting disease or illness from attending one of our events.
- If you are unsure of your COVID status, please test for COVID-19 before attending any of the GH Weekend Events. If you test positive and provide a positive COVID test result from a medical provider taken from July 23rd through July 30th your ticket fees will be refunded.
- Appearances by specific actors are not guaranteed at any events except for those hosted by the actor themselves.

Tickets are non-refundable except for as listed above.

I must include all names and emails for my guests.

I understand I will receive a confirmation email when payment is received.

I understand I must purchase all tickets together to be seated together.

I understand GHFC cannot add seats/names to a ticket order once it is received.

We reserve the right to refuse service to anyone and there are no refunds and exchanges unless you test positive for covid.

We are not responsible for lost or stolen items.

All guests may be subject to search upon entry to each event. Any type of weapon and/or sharp object will be prohibited.

Guests who fail to comply will be denied entry into the event.

I understand there are no exceptions to these rules.
